

Fair Processing Notice – Spatial Development Strategy Young Persons Survey Prize Draw

Identity and contact details of the controller and where applicable, the controller's representative and the data protection officer

The Liverpool City Region Combined Authority ('the CA') is the 'controller' for your personal information. This means that we decide the purpose and means of how your data is used as part of our prize draw.

If you have any questions about how your information is being used you can contact the CA's Data Protection Officer at

DPO@liverpoolcityregion-ca.gov.uk

1 Mann Island, Liverpool, L69 3HN

Purpose of the processing and the legal basis for the processing

Your information is being used by the CA to conduct the survey and run the prize draw and we are able to do this with your consent. In the case of 'special category' personal our legal basis for processing is your explicit consent.

Description of the categories of personal data

The categories of information being processed include your name, age, post code and email address or phone number.

We will also process some categories of 'special category' personal data, such as whether you have a disability and your ethnicity

Retention period or criteria used to determine the retention period

Your personal data will be kept in an identifiable form until the draw is made and the winner(s) is notified. It is expected that this will take place within a week of you providing your information. If you have stated that you would like to hear more from the Combined Authority about our plans for engaging with young people, your details will be kept until you opt out. These retention periods have been determined by the CA's business need.

The existence of each of data subject's rights

The GDPR provides you with the following rights when it comes to your personal data:

- The right to be informed how your personal data is being processed
- The right of access to the personal data we hold about you, which includes providing copies of the information to you within one month of a request. We may charge a reasonable fee to provide this information based on our administrative costs of responding (i.e. photocopying, postage, etc.).

- The right to rectification of any incorrect or incomplete data we hold about you
- The right to erasure, also known as ‘the right to be forgotten’, where
 - Your information is no longer required for the purpose it was collected
 - You withdraw your consent
 - You object to the CA processing your information (and there is no overriding legitimate interest for continuing the processing)
 - The CA has breached the GDPR when processing your data
 - There is a legal obligation to delete the data (such as a court order)
- The right to restrict processing, which limits what Merseytravel can do with your information
- The right to data portability, where any automated processing of your information based on your consent or as part of a contract is made available for your reuse
- The right to object to direct marketing or any processing based on the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority or for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics.
- Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling, where a decision made by a computer has a legal or significant effect on you.

The right to withdraw consent at any time

As our legal basis for processing your personal data is your consent, you have the right to withdraw this at any time.
